DETAILED ACTION

 The indicated allowability of claim 2 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Heo et al US patent Application publication 2003/0035367 and Chheda

US patent Application publication 2003/0231586.

. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.

Drawings

2. The drawings were received on 3/11/08. These drawings are acceptable.

Claim Objections

 Claim 10 is objected to because of the following informalities: claim 10, line 2, shouldn't "supporting" be deleted. Appropriate correction is required.

Response to amendment

4. Applicant's response has overcome the 112 first paragraph rejection of claim 1 and 112 second paragraph rejection of claims 1-11. Applicant's response has overcome the outstanding claim objection. However, after further consideration, claim 10 is further objected to for the reason sets forth above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Application/Control Number: 10/789,086

Art Unit: 2611

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

 Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Heo et al US patent Application publication 2003/0035367.

Heo et al discloses a method and apparatus see figs. 1-4 comprising assigning one of at least two radio configuration (i.e. 412 or 414) as a function of a higher data transmission rate 410 (see abstract) the rate is calculated for each radio configuration based on a power level and Walsh code see paragraph 0020, lines 5-10 and transmitting the data burst using said assigned radio configuration see abstract.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heo et al US patent Application publication 2003/0035367 in view of Chheda US patent Application publication 2003/0231586.

As applied to claim 1, Heo et all teaches the invention substantially as claimed but fails to teach the further limitations of evaluating (determining) the power level for each radio configuration and evaluating (determining) the availability of Walsh codes for each radio configuration. Chheda teaches at col. 0063, lines 5-6 that a code usage and a power usage are determined by BTS 66a. Given that fact, it would have been obvious to one skill in the art to modify Heo et al by evaluating the power level for each radio configuration and evaluating the availability of Walsh codes for each radio configuration in order to facilitate selection of a desired radio configuration to transmit the signal burst.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 3-11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
